

Presents Fashion Show

Brightly colored travel posters of faraway places will set the mood for the "Fashions for Travel" show to be presented by the Auxiliary to the Torrance Fire Dept. on Saturday, May 14, at 2 p.m. at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3031 Torrance Blvd.

Mrs. Ralph O. Ziegler will be commentator for the fashions to be provided by a Hollywood Riviera salon. Organ background music will be played by Bill Bailey. Along with the travel posters, decor will include dolls, dressed in international costumes, to be used as centerpieces. These dolls will then be donated to the Garden Valley Assn. for Mentally Retarded Children. At each place, a surprise package will be placed as a party favor. Place mats and napkins will be furnished by the Catalina Steamship Line.

Casual, afternoon and evening attire, along with maternity fashions, will be modeled by auxiliary members. Mmes. Ronald Wiener, Dennis Donatelli, Edward Siminich, Carl Marshall, Edward Kennedy, Mack Oetting, Bill Stonecker, Charles Richardson, Donald Lamb, Denny Haas and Edgar Polston.

Hairstyles will be especially created for the models by an area salon.

During the afternoon, a trip to Catalina and luggage will be awarded as door prizes.

Mrs. Mark Andersen is serving as general chairman of the affair. Assisting are Mmes. John Hughes, prize chairman; Mack Oetting, refreshments; Denny Haas and John Blain, decorations. Proceeds from the show will go to the Torrance YMCA. Tickets may be purchased from any auxiliary member or by contacting Mrs. Mark Andersen.

Course in Bridge Set At May Co.

Bee Shermet, accredited Master Bridge teacher, will conduct a 10-lesson bridge course for beginners and intermediates at the May Co. South Bay beginning May 5. The course from 7:45 to 9:15 p.m. each Thursday evening, will continue through July 7. The class, for which there is a nominal charge, will be held in the Tearoom at the store.
